FASHION MEETS CONFECTION

November 7th & 8th, 2009
Saturday - 2pm & 4pm / Sunday - 1pm & 4pm
Minneapolis Convention Center Hall E: Main Stage

Fashion meets Confection will certainly be one show you don't want to miss. Design and culinary students have teamed up to bring you the sweetest fashions to ever hit a runway! All of the designs are embellished with chocolate. This whimsical fashion show will be take place on the runway at 2pm & 4pm on Saturday, and at 1pm & 4pm on Sunday.

PROGRAM

Fashion students from the University of Minnesota will participate in an annual class project to show off their talents by designing "chocolate inspired" fashions with a holiday flair using non-traditional materials.

The fashions are accented with real confections by partnering with Le Cordon Bleu students and Pasty Professionals who use their artistic skills to add final touches to the designs.

Models will walk the runway in a 45-minute fashion show, wearing the delicious fashions. The fashion show is hosted by local radio personalities in Hall E at the Affair, drawing an audience of several hundred per show.

Fashion meets Chocolate is presented by the following organizations:

College of Design at the University of Minnesota

Le Cordon Bleu College of Culinary Arts, Minneapolis/St. Paul
